

Aim of the Journal:

- It aims to accelerate research among academic community and other researchers concerning society.
- To deliver the research to the widest possible audience
- To connects academics to society
- To providing a platform to the students, teachers, professionals, research scholars, NGO's and social partners to contribute their research findings

Scope of the Journal:

What type of articles we accept?

Original Research articles ...

1. Which connects society and academics
2. Which dwell on society, its issues, and solutions
3. Which dwell on academics and its impacts

What type of articles we do not accept:

1. Articles which are plagiarized
2. Articles which does not speak of society or academics
3. Articles which may create disharmony to the unity of our nation